Detailed Action

1. Claims 1-30 are presented for examination. This office action is in response to the amendment filed on 1/21/03.
2. Applicants are reminded of the duty to disclose information under 37 CFR 1.56.
3. The rejection of the last Office action is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to U.S. Patent No. 6,393,522 (Campbell). Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

- (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or
- (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

5. Claims 1-6, 11-16, 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Campbell U.S. Patent No. 6,393,522.

As to claims 1, 11, and 21, Campbell, discloses an apparatus comprising: a cache management logistics to control a transfer of a trace (Fig. 1 Refs. 105 and 104); an execution unit (Fig. 1 ref. 101); a first cache (Fig. 1 Ref. 102); and a second cache ( Fig. 1 Ref. 106).

As to claims 2, 12, and 22, Campbell, further discloses a usage counter (col. 2 lines 51+).

As to claims 3, 13, and 23, Campbell, further discloses a comparator (col. 2 lines 66+).

As to claims 4, 14, and 24, Campbell, further discloses the trace is transferred from the first cache to the second cache (Fig. 1).

As to claims 5, 15, and 25, Campbell, further discloses the trace is discarded (col. 2 lines 56+).

As to claims 6, 16, and 26, Campbell further discloses a L2 cache (Fig. 1 Ref. 106).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 10, 20, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Campbell U.S. Patent No. 6,393,522 in view of Jim Handy (Handy), "The Cache Memory Book", 1993, Academic Press, pp 37-107.

As to claims 10, 20, and 30, Campbell disclosed the invention as claimed, however, Campbell does not disclosed a LRU replacement policy.

Handy discloses a LRU replacement policy (section 2.2.2) for the purpose of increasing the hit rate thereby increasing the system speed.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate a LRU replacement policy as taught by Handy into the Campbell for the advantages stated above.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 7-9, 17-19, and 27-29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See attached PTO-892.
